

Thank you for your interest in CoDA Co-NNections Stories.

Please be aware that it is not okay to use a CoDA Co-NNections article as a topic for a CoDA meeting or as part of a recovery workshop?

(See: <https://coda.org/home/common-questions/#collapseTwo>)

All Co-NNections articles are copyrighted and doing so without permission would be an infringement of the copyright. Co-NNections provides a generic form, "Permission to use copyrighted material." You can download it or find another similar form, fill in the information, attach it to an email and send it to connections@coda.org. We'll forward your form to the author. We use this method to protect the anonymity of the authorship.

Click here (<https://coda.org/CoNNections/assets/File/CoDAPermissiontoUseCopyrightedMaterial.pdf>) to download the "Permission to Use Copyrighted Material Form."

NOTE: I think the same would apply to stories and articles found in Meting in Print.

Thank you for observing these guidelines and respecting CoDA's copyrights.
