

Request to Participate on CoRe Board

Return completed application to: board@corepublications.org

CoDA Resource Publishing, Inc. (CoRe) is a not-for-profit service organization that supports CoDA's mission to reach codependents who still suffer. CoRe supports CoDA's mission by ensuring the "still suffering" are able to obtain CoDA approved materials by publishing and selling these materials. In addition, CoRe royalties provide the financial support needed by CoDA to maintain an organization that can continue to bring programs and services to the CoDA community, as a not-for-profit.

Qualities and Experience:

I have developed better communication skills and a more compassionate outlook on all life, as a result of the CoDA recovery program, and I love this life I now live. So much credit goes to CoDA for my improved teaching style, improved interactions with others and a much quieter mind

25 years as an Information Technology specialist; network and systems administration, server setup, desktop support, email, and web server administration. Worked at a computer college, and 2 Fortune 500 companies. Capable with multiple computer applications: Word, Excel, Audacity, OneNote, Outlook

16 years as an instructor at a computer college, teaching mostly technical courses

CoDA Service Work:

21 years in CoDA, with two co-sponsors, multiple sponsees and participated in 8 CoDA Steps and Traditions studies

16 years in AA: I have found interesting the overlap of Twelve Step recovery, and attend meetings in both programs
